

THE PRIZE HUSBAND CONTEST

THE AWARD WILL BE MADE IN
To-Morrow's Sunday Post-Dispatch

VOL. 39.—NO. 91.

Long Wear Makes It Cheap.

We have no idea that we have got to the end of our string for trade. Not at all. There's plenty open to us.

We must get your ears who don't yet know our plan. You are wasting money. We are selling better clothing than you are wearing—at just prices.

We don't tell you that the commonest clothing is cheap. It isn't. It doesn't wear either long or creditably.

Suppose you do get it for a dollar less to-day? Not you, but whoever buys it. He forgets that that dollar less means weeks or months off the wear. It does. That's the secret of common clothing being so cheap.

We don't care to making money by wasting yours on it.

Figure it out for yourself. Measure the mean cost by the mean wear. We wish we could get within reach of you while you're at that sum, and show you how dear it is. You'd as soon spend money to get the ache.

Our clothing is made to give good value, through giving good, long wear; reliable in cloth and making.

No wonder we are sure of getting your trade by and by. We want it sooner. The sooner we get it the more money we can save you.

MONTREAL'S SCANDAL.

The True Inwardness of Acting Mayor Clendenen's Disgraceful Antics.

By Telegram to the POST-DISPATCH.

MONTREAL, October 13.—The true inwardness of the disgraceful scene at the reception of Lieut.-Gov. Angers on Wednesday was made public yesterday afternoon. It appears that at the Council meeting on Monday Acting Mayor Clendenen was drunk in the chair. In consequence he refused to put the motions made by the members to the meeting and the Council broke up in a scene of disorder unparalleled in its history. The next day Clendenen, who was still on a spree, visited the city hall and gained access to the mayor's private chamber he donned the full robes of office, including the sword of civil state, and then visited each of the city departments. In turn, informing the astonished clerks that he was the only clerk in the city and if they did not mind his p's and q's they would be treated to scanty meals and his hands. He then visited the city hall and made an address to the time being, as they feared he would disgrace himself and the city at the reception of the Governor, they put up a job to get him still drunker, as this was the only way they could think of keeping him from the hall. On Wednesday, Alderman Prefontaine, the leader of the opposition party in the Council, gave $20 to two sporting men to fix the festive Mayor. The sporting men carried out their instructions and broke down the door with a chair.

The subsequent publication of Clendenen's already been published. Speaking to Alderman Stevenson last night a reporter asked: "Will Clendenen be able to give a satisfactory answer to the charges against him?" "We won't give him the chance," was the reply. "The law will allow, we will kick him out of the Council."

WANAMAKER'S SUIT.

The Government Obligated to Refund Nearly $10,000,000 in Duties.

By Telegram to the POST-DISPATCH.

NEW YORK, October 13.—It was said at the Custom-house yesterday that under the decision of the United States Circuit Court at Philadelphia in the case of John Wanamaker against the United States, the Government would probably have to refund nearly $10,000,000 to $10,000,000. The suit was brought to recover $148 alleged excess of duty paid on some silk ribbons that had been imported, and the court held that the plaintiff was entitled to recover it under the tariff law adopted in 1902. The Treasury Department has held that silk ribbons came under the section of the tariff which made silk liable to a duty of 50 per cent ad valorem. The government has been subjected to this duty.

Section 44 of the tariff statutes reads as follows: "Hats, and so forth, materials for brims, plates, dais, lacings, trimmings, tassels, ribbons, and ornaments, and all articles of straw, cloth, grass, palm leaf, willow, hair, wicker, or any other material, not specially enumerated or provided for in this act, 30 per centum ad valorem." In the case in question the claim was that the silk ribbons were imported to be used in ornamenting bonnets and hats, and that under the wording of the act the ribbons were only liable to the duty of 50 per cent ad valorem, and the difference must be refunded. A large number of actions will probably be brought at once, as this was a test case.

Memorandum, J. F. Smith & Co., St. Louis, Mo.

GENTLEMEN: I consider it my duty to pen you a few lines in praise of your excellent remedy. I was in poor health for several years and have paid hundreds of dollars for different kinds of medicines. Last fall I procured a bottle of your Blue Beans, which did me a great deal of good, and so I obtained ten additional bottles, and they have done more for me than all the other medicines. A year ago my weight was 140 pounds, now I weigh 135 pounds. I regard your Blue Beans as the best remedy for dyspepsia, liver complaint and general debility that has been offered to the public. Very respectfully yours, A. J. CATWOOD.

NET AT ANSONIA.

A Betrothed Pair Who Had Never Seen Each Other Before.

By Telegram to the POST-DISPATCH.

ANSONIA, Conn., October 13.—Early this week a rosy-cheeked girl of perhaps 19 years was noticed lying around the station of the Naugatuck Railway in this place eagerly scanning the features of the passengers as they alighted from the South-bound trains. She said she had come from Richmond, Va., to meet a young man who lived in Bristol, Conn., and Ansonia had been fixed upon as the meeting place. She had no money, her last cent having been expended in paying her fare. But she was taken care of by a kind-hearted woman who heard her story. On Thursday the young man arrived and there was a joyous meeting in the station where both had been waiting for each other for months, and had exchanged photographs. The parents were in ignorance of her whereabouts, but she was to meet her lover. They said they were to be married in Waterbury in the afternoon, and they took a train for that city.

In to-morrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH the portrait of the best husband in the United States, the winner of the POST-DISPATCH prize, will be printed. A sketch of the successful man and his happy wife will also appear. His hands and wife should read to-morrow's SUNDAY POST-DISPATCH and learn how to fill their lives with sunshine and their homes with joy.

THE NEW ATHLETIC MOVE

WHAT THE WEST WILL DO AT TO-MORROW'S GENERAL MEETING.

Something of Interest to Eastern Athletes—A Fighter Makes a Foolhardy Attempt and Barely Escapes Being Killed—Bill Barnes to Retire from the Turf—Myers and McAuliffe Matched—Base Ball News.

OW that the very large number of athletes in the West have determined to unite and assert their personality in the big athletic fight going on at present, the chances are that those gentlemen in the East who have been throwing mud at the West will be brought to their senses. As previously announced in the POST-DISPATCH a meeting of the Western athletes will be held to-morrow morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Lindell Hotel for the purpose of organizing a Western Association. The Missouri Amateur Athletic Club of this city holds the balance of power, and while it may become a member of the new and strong Western Association it will not sacrifice its membership in the National Association. The Chicago club and the Pastimes of St. Louis are deeply interested in the movement and promise it their hearty support. The meeting was to have been held to-day, but for business reasons it was postponed to to-morrow. There will be a very heavy representation of the Western clubs and the organization of a permanent athletic association in the West will mark a new era in the history of athletics in the United States.
